YOUNG BEFENDENT IS DISCHARGED

Kawamura was yesterday discharged from the conspiracy proceedings at the request of the prosecution, thus leaving only Makino. Negoro, Tasaka and Soga.

The prosecution considers what proof they had advanced as to the complicity of Kawamura is insufficient to convict him on charge and they did not prove that he was at the initial meeting. His youth was also taken into consideration.

Negoro was being examined on direct examination this morning ductionto the public, but wish to when the court adjourned at the news of Sheba's stabbing, and the defense's side of the meeting of the newspaper men was Last being given, according to the testimony of the witness. Kinney has not yet commenced on the cross-examination, and Negoro is evidently the star witness for the defense.

Kinney objected early to the manner in which Negoro was commenting on the questions, and Lightfoot pointed out the fact that Sheba had been practically an assistant to the prosecution in which manner Negoro was said by Kinney to stand to the defense. Lightfoot asked if Sheba was to be considered as a witness and liable to be called in rebuttal that he be dismissed from the court room.

Sheba went, smiling, and that was the last seen of him in the court room. An hour later the news of his stabbing broke up the trial,
